Dental Assistants Recognition Week – March 4th to 10th, 2018

Advancing the Profession through collaboration and leadership

A certified or registered dental assistant is educated in infection control protocols, providing patient education, assisting the dentist during procedures, independently providing intra oral treatment, performing laboratory tasks and much more. As part of the dental team they are essential to the oral care of Canadians!

Recognize your dental assistant during the first week of March.